COUNT BONI LOSES.

Not Even Given Alimony, and Ordered to Pay Costs.

Paris, Nov. 15.—Divorce, absolute and final, was yesterday granted the Countess de Castellane, who was Anna Gould of New York, by the Tribunal of the First Instance of the Seine, from the Count de Castellane. By the court's decree the wife is given the custody of their three children forever. With the permission of the court she may take them anywhere.

The Countess pays the Count no allowance and is responsible for none of his expenditures in the future.

Count Must Pay Costs.

By the court's decree the Count is compelled to pay the entire costs of the proceedings. This forces him to formally become a bankrupt in the eyes of the law, and he will at once be compelled to resign his seat in the Chamber of Deputies, as no bankrupt may hold a seat there.

As read from the bench, the verdict was generally accepted as allowing Count Boni alimony amounting to $30,000 a year, but a closer perusal of the court's order later in the day revealed the fact that the defendant had not only been denied any allowance, but in addition had been assessed for the cost of the proceedings.

The possibility of Countess Anna's remarriage is not touched in the court's decision, and the general interpretation is that she will be free to wed again should she choose.

IRVING PUT OFF STREET CAR.

The Actor's American Money "Bad" in Montreal.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 15.—Henry B. Irving, the famous son of a famous father, was ordered off a street car here Tuesday by a French Canadian conductor, because he did not happen to have in his pocket at the time any Canadian silver. When the conductor came to Mr. Irving with the customary demand: "Passage, all yours, please" (fare, if you please), Mr. Irving fetched forth a Yankee quarter. "I'm not allowed to take American money," explained the conductor in his broken English. "But it's all I have," replied Mr. Irving. "Can't help that, the conductor answered, 'I would let everybody travel free, but I am under instructions. You'll have to get off.' Mr. Irving cast a Shakespearean glance at the conductor, and with lingering footsteps alighted from the car in the midst of a blinding storm of snow and sleet. A Montrealer who witnessed the incident did not observe until too late that the person inconvenienced was the distinguished actor. Although at first he felt highly indignant that anybody should be put to such trouble, his inward dislike for Americans in general, and his opposition to the circulation of American coin in Canada overcame his better motives. He thought that it was a splendid joke lesson for those Yankees who think that Canada belongs to the United States.

PROGRESSING SLOWLY.

It Is Very Hard to Secure a Gillette Razor.

Herkimer, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The lawyers in the Gillette razor trial yesterday continued the selection of a jury which has been in progress all the week. Men were challenged from the jury box and other men were called to take their places. Then objection was found to the latter and they were rushed out. In that way the jury-getting occupied the morning.

MUCH REASON FOR THANKS

Says Gov. Proctor in Annual Proclamation

FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

Sets Apart Thursday, November 29, and Calls Upon People of Vermont to Render Deep and Reverent Gratitude.

Governor Proctor today issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, as follows: State of Vermont, by Fletcher D. Proctor, governor, a proclamation.

Whereas, the people of this state, as their fathers, still acknowledge their dependence on the beneficent providence of Almighty God, and the recurring year having brought again the season of harvest, it is good to follow the hallowed custom of the fathers and to recognize this divine favor by setting apart a day for public expression of gratitude and praise.

Therefore, I do appoint Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November current, a day of thanksgiving for the people of this state.

Vermont has abundant reason for grateful rejoicing. A strong and resolute people have established here a state that has always stood for an intelligent, liberty-loving, law-abiding citizenship, and for that righteousness which alone exalts a commonwealth or a nation. Her welfare and honor have been conserved by the intelligence and honest purpose of her citizens. Her products of field, mine, workshop and factory have abounded. There are many evidences, also, of virtues that strengthen and uplift society—patriotism, high moral courage, justice and unselfish devotion to the public good.

For these blessings—the heritage of the past, the advantage of the present and the promise of the future—let us on the day designated, in the church, in the home, and in other fitting places, render our deep and reverent gratitude to the Giver of all good. Let us be moved by a spirit of humility, generous fraternity and tender sympathy. Let us draw closer and sweeten the ties of home and family. And let us dedicate ourselves to that living—public and private—which will bring to the state and nation a continuance and an increase of enlightenment, liberty and peace, and which will make for righteous character.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state in the executive chamber at Montpelier, this fifteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred six, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred thirty-first.

Fletcher D. Proctor, Governor.

[Seal]
Ben. Willard, Jr., Secretary Civil and Military Affairs.

N. Y. CENTRAL IS AGAIN ON TRIAL

Another Charge of Rebelling in That the Railroad Favors the Sugar Trust.

New York, Nov. 15.—The New York Central railroad, that only recently was heavily fined for granting rebates to the sugar trust, was once more brought to trial yesterday on another charge of rebelling to the same trust.

The trial, which began at noon yesterday before Judge Holt and a jury in the United States court at New York, was the first held through the efforts of William Randolph Hearst.

It is charged that while the railroad was ostensibly charging 21 cents per thousand pounds of sugar between New York and Cleveland, it granted six cents rebate to the trust. The present prosecution is on the evidence that such rebates extending from July 24, 1902, to December 31, 1905, amounting to $25,341.81 on 63,000,000 pounds of sugar.

A jury was selected in two hours yesterday, and Assistant United States District Attorney Wise made his opening address to the jury.

Mr. Wise said he would prove the rate between New York and Cleveland was the same as between New York and Cleveland; that, moreover, shippers of sugar from New York got no rebate. He said the rates were in a traffic agreement between the New York Central and the Lake Shore and Michigan Central.

LEAVE TO UNION.

Eric Railroad Firemen Voted to Uphold Grand Masters' Action on Strike.

New York, Nov. 15.—Reports received at the headquarters of the brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen at the Broadway Hotel yesterday, showed that the firemen employed on the Erie railroad between Port Jervis, Susquehanna and Hornell have voted unanimously to uphold any action which Grand Master John J. Hannahan and the firemen's board may take in the matter of wages. This is the form in which the vote is being taken along the line of the Erie, so that it will be left to the officers of the union to decide whether to order a strike or not.

Mr. Hannahan expects to go to Peoria this afternoon and return on Saturday.

25 MUTINEERS ESCAPE.

Russians Overpower Guards at Cronstadt

SIGNERS OF VIBORG

Manifesto May Be Imprisoned—Held for Trial; Penalty Is Three Years—Rumors That Riehnob Planned Own Assassination.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—Twenty-five sailors who were sentenced to hard labor in the mines for life, after having been convicted of participation in the August mutiny, escaped Tuesday evening, at Cronstadt, while awaiting deportation. They were allowed to visit the baths under an escort of sixteen soldiers and overpowered and disarmed the guards, killing one man. The convicts then donned civilians' clothes and disappeared. Only one of the fugitives has been captured.

The examining magistrate, charged with an investigation into the signing of the Viborg manifesto by members of the former duma, has sent them up for trial on a charge entailing three years' imprisonment. Up to the present the receipts from the sale of spirits, which is a state monopoly, exceed the receipts for the corresponding period last year by 58,000,000 rubles ($29,000,000).

General Riehnob, at Moscow, has received hundreds of messages including a personal communication from Emperor Nicholas, through Prince Sviyazyn, and a despatch from Count Witte, congratulating him upon his escape from assassination. In spite of these congratulations, which give color to the official version of the attempt on the pretect's life, there are ugly rumors in Moscow that General Riehnob was himself the author of the plot against his own life. He is thought to have selected to replace his sinking fortunes, and to have decided upon retirement, it having been decided upon in official circles to relieve him from duty. These suspicious rumors are supported by certain circumstantial evidence. General Riehnob, at the time the attempt on his life was made, was following an unusual path on foot through narrow alleys. The bomb exploded in a manner described as highly suspicious. Pieces picked up on the spot show it to have been nothing more than an imitation bomb, quite without effective covering and perfectly harmless. He failed to explode until he had rolled to the opposite side of the street and to a safe distance from the pretect. The original theory was that the bomb did not go off because the dynamite in it was frozen. Now the police explain it was a fuse bomb, and the Social Revolutionists disavowed such missiles long ago.

On account of the indignation aroused at the statement that General Riehnob shot down his assailant while he was being held by two policemen, a statement was issued to the effect that the bomb thrower when he was killed by the general was struggling to escape, but the revolver which he is alleged to have used has not been found. It is now decided that the man who shot him was a revolver, that he fired at nobody, and that he had been promised that he would be allowed to escape. General Riehnob, however, is alleged to have shot him to get rid of him. The claim made by the police that the man was a brother of Vladimir Nazary has been disproved.

Count Witte will be received soon by Emperor Nicholas at Tsarsko-Selo.

COTTON KING ABDICATES.

Sully Now Reigns Over a Soap Corporation.

New York, Nov. 15.—Daniel J. Sully, once known as the "cotton king," has abandoned the field in which he made his spectacular coup and has gone into soap and tallow. He has become the head of a soap corporation, which has $1,200,000 capital. This he is in Brooklyn. Sully, it was stated yesterday, was behind the recent movements in the tallow market, which has forced that commodity up twenty-five per cent. within the last few weeks. Sully said last night he was not trying to corner the tallow market. "I went into the soap business some little time ago," he said, "and since September, we have accumulated a year's supply ahead. That's all. We've got it, and now I expect to see the price of tallow slump off some. We have no idea of forming or entering an American soap trust. Trusts are not popular just now."

TROOPS FIGHT WITH KNIVES.

Artillerymen and Infantry Battle at Fort Russell—One May Die.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 15.—A desperate fight occurred on the streets of Cheyenne last night, when a detachment of artillerymen from Fort Russell attacked a number of infantry men, all on leave. The cause of the fight is an old feud existing between the two arms of the service.

FIND BAD NOTE.

Secret Service Folk Announce That $10 "Buffalo" One Is in Circulation.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The United States secret service announces the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 "Buffalo" United States note. This counterfeit is apparently a photolithographic production printed on two pieces of paper with silk fiber inserted between them. The face of the note is grayish blue.

The numbering, seal and large X TEN are of good color and workmanship. The check letter and plate number do not appear in the lower right hand corner. The back of the note is a dark bluish green.

By itself this counterfeit is apt to deceive, but when handled with genuine notes, the marked difference in the color of the back should lead to its immediate detection.

Attorney H. Wilson, who was retained by the prisoner at the last moment, said: "Haul insists that he knows nothing about the murder and that he is quite innocent of the charge."

The prisoner, who was stylishly dressed, maintained a confident air, but he was much paler than when he first appeared in court, the result of his week's incarceration.

DECLARE CASTRO IS DEAD.

Fact Being Concealed by Venezuelan Government, It Is Believed.

Fort-de-France, Island of Martinique, Nov. 15.—The Dutch cruiser Kortenaar arrived here Tuesday from Willemstad, island of Curacao, and reported yesterday that the late Venezuelan president, Juan Francisco Castro, was rumored there persistently, and generally believed that President Castro of Venezuela was dead, but that his death was being concealed by the Venezuelan government in order to maintain itself in power.

The Kortenaar has received orders to hasten her return to port to see again and to leave Fort-de-France for La Guayra, Venezuela, if the death of President Castro is confirmed.

The French cruisers Julien de la Graviere and Duguay Trouin are off this port.

SEC. METCALF BACKS JAPAN?

Said to Hold Treaty Violated By San Francisco.

JAPANESE ARE ENTITLED

To Education Without Discrimination—Courts Would Upset State Statute—This, According to The Call, His Views for the President.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—The Call of yesterday said:

"Secretary Metcalf before leaving for Washington confided to a few intimate friends that the sentiment of the people of San Francisco, if not the whole state, is opposed to allowing Japanese or Chinese children to mingle freely with white children in the public schools, and that it is likely that the statute providing that Asiatic children be taught in separate schools will be strengthened at the coming session of the legislature. The secretary said further that it was his opinion as a lawyer that the treaty between the United States and Japan guaranteed to the children of Japanese residents in this country the right to an education in the public schools without discrimination, and on an equal plane with the children of the most favored nations, and that he so would report to President Roosevelt. It was his further opinion that the word 'Mongolian' strictly interpreted, meant natives of Mongolia, that the Japanese could not be brought under the designation and that the federal courts would declare the state law unconstitutional."

FACTS SAID TO LOOK BAD.

Washington Hears Rumors of Metcalf's Findings.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Officially nothing is known here of the character of Secretary Metcalf's report on the Japanese trouble at San Francisco, which will be presented when the President returns from Panama. It is believed that he has made much headway in checking the anti-Japanese feeling and bringing the Californians to a realization of the disastrous effect which will result from a continuance of their agitation. It is understood that Secretary Metcalf has got at the facts, but that the facts do not improve the outlook. That the discrimination against the Japanese in California has been brought about by a labor organization is the opinion of Eugene F. Loui of that state, who was formerly a member of Congress from California and has just returned here from a visit to his old home. "The movement against the Japanese on the Pacific coast began only two or three years ago," said Mr. Loui, "and is due entirely to the labor influence there."

It was inspired by the fact that the Japanese can compete with the American labor advantageously because of the cheaper cost of his living. The Japanese are not to be classed with Chinese coolie labor. They are far more progressive and intelligent. They have been orderly and industrious on the coast and although they are not citizens, it is not believe the question whether they come under the law preventing Mongolians from becoming naturalized has ever been tested in the courts. And the labor unions and the demagogues the agitation started, and I do not know where it will end. The majority of the people of California are in favor of Japanese exclusion, and it is natural that the candidates for office should bow to the prevailing opinion. Representative Kahn of San Francisco, whose district was reduced by the calamity from 30,000 to 5,000 and who was re-elected because of the majority of the voters left in the district were Republicans, has taken a prominent part in the agitation."

NORWAY'S KING IN LONDON.

They received hearty ovations from the crowds with whom Queen Maud was always a favorite.

A distinguished assemblage, including a number of the royal family, met the visiting king and queen at the luncheon.

The whole country between Auburn and the Cascade Mountains is reported to be flooded. The full extent of the danger and damage is difficult to ascertain, as all wire communication is interrupted.
